2. The judges may use Form 4, entitled “Judge’s Personal Notes”, to write notes about the athletes.

3. The statisticians will gather Form 3 from the judges and will transcribe their placings onto Form 5, entitled “Score Sheet (Statisticians)”, under Round 1. They will then discard two highest and two lowest scores; add the remaining five scores, multiply the results by 2 (two) and write the total under the column marked “Round 1 Subscore”.

4. Should a tie occur in the “Round 1 Subscore”, the tie need not be immediately broken since the “Round 1 Subscore” must be added to the “Round 2 Subscore” to produce a “PREJUDGING SCORE”.

Article 8 – Prejudging: Assessing of Round 1 (Routine)

8.1 Assessing of Round 1:

Round 1 will be assessed using the following criteria:

1. Each judge will assess the routine with a view towards style, personality, athletic coordination and overall performance. Judges will also look for competitors who perform strength and flexibility elements, as well as gymnastic elements. The routine may include aerobics, dance, gymnastics or other demonstrations of athletic talent with harmonized costume, music and choreography. There are no required elements.

2. The judges are reminded that, during this round, they are judging ONLY the fitness routine and NOT the physique. More details in Appendix 2 to this Section.

Article 10 – Prejudging: Presentation of Round 2 (Quarter turns)

10.1 Presentation of Round 2:

The procedures for Round 2 will be as follows:

1. The entire category will be called onstage, in a single line and in numerical order.
2. The line-up will be divided into two equal-size groups and will be positioned onstage so that one group is to the left of the stage; the other group is to the right of the stage. The center portion of the stage will be left open for comparison purposes.
3. In numerical order, and in groups of no more than eight competitors at a time, each group will be directed to center-stage area to perform the four quarter turns.
4. The IFBB Chief Judge or Stage Director will direct the competitors through the four positions connected with the 4 quarter turns:

- a. Front Position
- b. Quarter Turn Right- Left Side Position - Left side to the judges
- c. Quarter Turn Back- Rear Position-Back to the judges
- d. Quarter Turn Right- Right Side Position – Right side to the judges

Note 1: Detailed description of the Children Fitness quarter turns provided in Appendix 1 to this Section.

Note 2: Competitors will not chew gum or candy while onstage.

Note 3: Competitors will not drink water or any other liquids while onstage.

5. This initial grouping of competitors and performance of the quarter turns is intended to assist the judges in determining which competitors will take part in the key comparisons that follow.

6. All judges will be asked now to submit individual propositions for the first comparison of the top five athletes to the IFBB Chief Judge. Chief Judge will analyze propositions submitted by all of the panel judges and, based on them, he will form the first comparison with competitors most often proposed by the panel judges, what means that these competitors are the best in the line-up. The number of athletes to be compared will be determined by the Chief Judge but no less than three and no more than eight competitors will be compared at any one time.

Then the judges may be asked to submit individual propositions for the second comparison of the next five athletes, included competitors placing in the middle of the group. Then the third comparison will be formed by the IFBB Chief Judge, with competitors to be placed in the rearmost part of the group of semifinalists.

All competitors will be called out one time at least. The total number of comparisons will be decided by the IFBB Chief Judge.

6. All individual comparisons will be carried out center-stage.

7. Upon completion of the last comparison, all competitors will return to a single lineup, in numerical order, before exiting the stage.

Article 11 – Prejudging: Scoring of Round 2 (Quarter Turns)

11.1 The scoring for Round 2 is carried out as follows:

1. Using Form 3, entitled “Judge’s Individual Placings (Prejudging)”, each judge will award each competitor an individual placing from 1st to the last, ensuring that no two or more competitors receive the same placing. The judges may use Form 4, entitled “Judge’s Personal Notes” to record their assessment about each competitor.

2. The statisticians will collect Form 3 from the judges and will then transcribe the judge’s placings onto Form 5, entitled “Score Sheet (Statisticians)”. They will then discard two highest and two lowest scores (if nine judges) or one highest and one lowest (if less than nine judges) for each competitor, will add up the remaining five scores to produce a “Round 2 Subscore” and a “Round 2 Place”. The competitor with the lowest subscore is awarded 1st place while the competitor with the highest subscore is awarded the last place.

3. Ties in the “Round 2 Subscore” need not be immediately broken as the “Round 2 Subscore” will be added to the “Round 1 Subscore” to produce a “PREJUDGING SCORE” and “PREJUDGING PLACE”.

4. Should a tie occur in the “PREJUDGING SCORE”, the tie will be broken using the “Round 2 Subscore” first. If a tie still exists, it will be broken using the “Relative Placement Method” and the athlete’s Round 2 Subscores.

Note 1: The Relative Placement Method procedure:

Each individual judge's scores for the tied athletes will be compared on a column-by column basis with a dot being placed on top of the number for the athlete with better placing. All nine regular panel judge's scores will be included in the tie breaking calculations. The number of dots will be tallied for each of the tied athletes. The athlete with the greater number of dots will be declared the winner of the tie and will then receive the better placing.

5. The scores for the Prejudging will be used to place the competitors from 1st place to the last place. The top 6 competitors from the Prejudging will advance to the Finals and will start the Finals with zero points.

Article 12 – Prejudging: Assessing of Round 2 (Quarter Turns)

12.1 Round 2 is assessed using the following criteria:

1. The judge should first assess the overall appearance of the physique. This assessment should begin at the head and extend downwards, take the whole physique into account. The assessment, beginning with the general impression of the physique, should take into consideration the overall development of the body; the presentation of a balanced, symmetrically developed physique; the condition of the skin and the skin tone.

2. The judge's assessment of the athlete's physique should include the athlete's entire presentation, from the moment he/she walks onstage until the moment he/she walks offstage. At all times the children competitor must be viewed with the emphasis on a "healthy, fit, good-looking physique". More details in Appendix 1.

APPENDIX 1:

QUARTER TURNS

Competitors who fail to adopt the proper stance will receive one warning after which points will be deducted from their score.

Front Position (face to the judges)

Erect stance, head and eyes facing the same direction as the body, heels together, feet inclined outward at a 30° angle, knees together and unbent, stomach in, chest out, shoulders back, both arms kept at the side along the centerline of the body, elbows slightly bent, thumbs and fingers together, palms facing the body and hold about 10 cm out of the body, hands slightly cupped.

Erect stance, head and eyes facing the same direction as the body, heels together, feet inclined outward at a 30° angle, knees together and unbent, stomach in, chest out, shoulders back, left arm kept slightly back from the center-line of the body with a slight bend at the elbow, thumb and fingers together, palm facing the direction of the body, hand slightly cupped, right arm kept slightly front of the center-line of the body with a slight bend at the elbow, thumb and fingers together, palm facing the body, hand slightly cupped. The positioning of the arms will cause the upper body to twist slightly to the left, with the left shoulder lowered and the right shoulder raised. This is normal and must not be exaggerated.

Quarter Turn Back-Rear Position (back to the judges)

Erect stance, head and eyes facing the same direction as the body, heels together, feet inclined outward at a 30° angle, knees together and unbent, stomach in, chest out, shoulders back, back muscles slightly contracted to show the shape of the upper body, both arms kept at the side along the centerline of the body, elbows slightly bent, thumbs and fingers together, palms facing the body and hold about 10 cm out of the body, hands slightly cupped.

Erect stance, head and eyes facing the same direction as the body, heels together, feet inclined outward at a 30° angle, knees together and unbent, stomach in, chest out, shoulders back, right arm kept slightly back from the centerline of the body with a slight bend at the elbow, thumb and fingers together, palm facing the direction of the body, hand slightly cupped, left arm kept slightly front of the center-line of the body with a slight bend at the elbow, thumb and fingers together, palm facing the body, hand slightly cupped. The positioning of the arms will cause the upper body to twist slightly to the right, with the right shoulder lowered and the left shoulder raised. This is normal and must not be exaggerated.

ASSESSMENT OF THE FITNESS ROUTINES

In this round, athletes perform a fitness routine to music selected by the competitor, the length of which shall be 90 sec +/- 5 sec.

Once again, the judge should consider the OVERALL IMPRESSION, that is, the entire routine from the moment the athlete presents herself/himself onstage until the moment the athlete walks offstage. The judges are reminded that, during these Rounds, they are judging ONLY the fitness routine and NOT the physique. The judge should look for a well-choreographed and creative routine performed at a different tempo/speed. Although compulsory movements are not a requirement, the routine should include:

1. Elements of STRENGTH - for example, straddle hold, leg extension hold, hand stands, planche and/or one-arm pushups (gymnastic movements such as front and back flips, handsprings, and cartwheels are not considered strength elements). The number of strength moves, their degree of difficulty, and the overall creativity of the moves should be considered in the judging of the routine.
2. Elements of FLEXIBILITY – for example, high kicks, bridges, nuts, front and back walkovers, side splits, and/or front splits. The number of flexibility moves, their degree of difficulty, and the overall creativity of the moves should be considered in the judging of the routine.
3. Elements of POWER – dynamic elements like high jumps, front and back flips, handsprings, aerial cartwheels, aerial walkovers, round offs, split leaps. These moves require perfect technique and should be taking into account assessing the difficulty of the routine.
4. The SPEED or tempo of the routine demonstrates a degree of cardiovascular fitness, stamina, and endurance. For example, if two routines contain the same type and number of strength and flexibility movements, the routine that is performed at a faster tempo is the more difficult to achieve so long as the movements are correctly performed.

Routines based on the gymnastics moves only should be marked down. Once again, the judge must always consider the "Total Package" and not just the sum of the individual movements. There is a component - an element of "showmanship", which competitors bring to a fitness routine that is unique to them and creates the overall impression. This is their personality and stage presence, as well as a natural rhythm that should play a part in the final placing of each competitor.

APPENDIX 3: PHOTOGRAPHS

APPENDIX 2

ASSESSMENT OF THE FITNESS ROUTINES

In these rounds, athletes perform a fitness routine to music selected by the competitor, the length of which shall be 90 sec +/- 5 sec.

~~Once again,~~ The judge should consider the OVERALL IMPRESSION, that is, the entire routine from the moment the athlete presents herself/himself onstage until the moment the athlete walks offstage. The judges are reminded that, during these Rounds, they are judging ONLY the fitness routine and NOT the physique. The judge should look for a well-choreographed and creative routine performed at a different tempo/speed. Although compulsory movements are not a requirement, the routine should include:

1. Elements of STRENGTH—for example, straddle hold, leg extension hold, hand stands, planche and/or one-arm pushups (gymnastic movements such as front and back flips, handsprings, and cartwheels are not considered strength elements). The number of strength moves, their degree of difficulty, and the overall creativity of the moves should be considered in the judging of the routine.

2. Elements of FLEXIBILITY—for example, high kicks, bridges, nuts, front and back walkovers, side splits, and/or front splits. The number of flexibility moves, their degree of difficulty, and the overall creativity of the moves should be considered in the judging of the routine.

3. Elements of POWER—dynamic elements like high jumps, front and back flips, handsprings, aerial cartwheels, aerial walkovers, round offs, split leaps. These moves require perfect technique and should be taking into account assessing the difficulty of the routine.

4. The SPEED or tempo of the routine demonstrates a degree of cardiovascular fitness, stamina, and endurance. For example, if two routines contain the same type and number of strength and flexibility movements, the routine that is performed at a faster tempo is the more difficult to achieve so long as the movements are correctly performed.

The criteria for evaluating a fitness routine should include:

I. DIFFICULTY:

1. ACROBATIC ELEMENTS

- a. acrobatic without flight elements (always in contact with floor., for example: forward or backward roll., forward walkover, backward walkover, handstand, turns in handstand, backward stretch step out)
- b. acrobatic flight elements (elements without contact with floor., for example: free aerial cartwheel, round off, flic-flac, salto backward, salto forward, free aerial walkover forward)
- c. GYM ACRO SERIES- It is possible to combine acrobatic elements to the gym acro series for example Round-off, Flic-flac, salto backward.

Routines based contain more acrobatic elements should be marked down.
